2020 PRICING GUIDE

THIS IS US.

We are Shelley&Ricky and we have been married since September 2016. Two years of fun, and 10 years of working together being inspired by other couples in love just like us.

So what's our story, I (Shelley) spent 8 years of our relationship telling Ricky not to ask me to marry him because I'd say no. So harsh right? But I wasn't ready, it wasn't that I didn't want to marry him or that he wasn't the one, it was that all our efforts were being put into our love for other couples weddings. We got invited to be part of so many amazing weddings, we didn't feel like we were missing out. We were just so immersed in all the love!!

We'd been travelling together in Indonesia when Ricky planned for us to go take photographs of a sunset in Bali, nothing odd there right? Photographers photographing things.

Funny thing was, he didn't pack memory cards into the camera bags. I was a little bit cross, but I also just took out our old film camera and shot it without the need for a memory card. I tried to tell myself to catch myself on, here we are on a Cliff Top watching a beautiful Balinese sunset (they are incredible, book your flights now, you will never regret visiting this country)

And so I turned back around to see Ricky on one knee, this is the only time he had managed to surprise me, because I'm a full blown detective and it's hard to catch me out. I wondered why he was driving the scooter so badly on the way to the cliff and it all made sense. Turns out his nerves were shot thinking about proposing. We sat for a while watching the sunset together and then we returned to eat pizza with friends. The best part was, the engagement bliss became short lived when everyone ended up with food poisoning from the pizza the next morning. Except me! I was fine and just stared at my gorgeous engagement ring that Ricky had designed himself for the rest of the holiday. And marriage! We saw a gap in our ever busy wedding diary and planned our big day in 3 months and had a flipping blast. And we want you to have an amazing day at yours, which is why we meet everyone we work with before their big day and get a plan into action of how we can best serve you on your wedding day.

So why not take a little read through what your investment with us will look like and get in touch if you would like to come to our studio in Belfast for some good coffee and a chat.
